The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 27, to Tuesday December 30, 1794.

Westminster, December 30, 1794.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

AFTER the uniform Experience which I have had of your zealous Regard for the Interests of My People, it is a great Satisfaction to Me to recur to your Advice and Assistance at a Period which calls for the full Exertion of your Energy and Wisdom.

Notwithstanding the Disappointments and Reverses which We have experienced in the Course of the last Campaign, I retain a firm Conviction of the Necessity of persisting in a vigorous Prosecution of the just and necessary War in which We are engaged.

You will, I am confident, agree with Me, that it is only from Firmness and Perseverance that We can hope for the Restoration of Peace on safe and honourable Grounds, and for the Preservation and permanent Security of Our dearest Interests.

In considering the Situation of Our Enemies, you will not fail to observe, that the Efforts which have led to their Successes, and the unexampled Means by which alone those Efforts could have been supported, have produced among themselves the pernicious Effects which were to be expected; and that every Thing which has passed in the Interior of the Country has shewn the progressive and rapid Decay of their Resources, and the Instability of every Part of that violent and unnatural System, which is equally ruinous to France and incompatible with the Tranquillity of other Nations.

The States General of the United Provinces have nevertheless been led, by a Sense of present Difficulties, to enter into Negotiations for Peace with the Party now prevailing in that unhappy Country. No established Government or independent State can, under the present Circumstances, derive real Security from such Negotiations: On Our Part, they could not be attempted without sacrificing both Our Honour and Safety to an Enemy whose chief Animosity is avowedly directed against these Kingdoms.

I have therefore continued to use the most effectual Means for the further Augmentation of My Forces; and I shall omit no Opportunity of concerting the Operations of the next Campaign with such of the Powers of Europe as are impressed with the same Sense of the Necessity of Vigour and Exertion. I place the fullest Reliance on the Valour of My Forces, and on the Affection and Public Spirit of My People, in whose Behalf I am contending, and whose Safety and Happiness are the Objects of My constant Solicitude.

The local Importance of Corsica, and the spirited Efforts of it's Inhabitants to deliver themselves from the Yoke of France, determined me not to withhold hold the Protection which they fought for; and I have ſince accepted the Crown and Sovereignty of that Country, according to an Inſtrument, a Copy of which I have directed to be laid before you.

I have great Pleaſure in informing you, that I have concluded a Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, with the United States of America, in which it has been My Object to remove, as far as poſſible, all Grounds of Jealouſy and Miſunderſtanding, and to improve an Intercourſe beneficial to both Countries.—As ſoon as the Ratifications ſhall have been exchanged, I will direct a Copy of this Treaty to be laid before you, in order that you may conſider of the Propriety of making ſuch Proviſions as may appear neceſſary for carrying it into Effect.

I have the greateſt Satisfaction in announcing to you the happy Event of the Concluſion of a Treaty for the Marriage of My Son the Prince of Wales with the Princeſs Caroline, Daughter of the Duke of Brunſwick: The conſtant Proofs of your Affection for My Perſon and Family perſuade Me that you will participate in the Sentiments I feel on an Occaſion ſo intereſting to my Domeſtic Happineſs, and that you will enable Me to make Proviſion for ſuch an Eſtabliſhment as you may think ſuitable to the Rank and Dignity of the Heir Apparent to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

The Conſiderations which prove the Neceſſity of a vigorous Proſecution of the War will, I doubt not, induce you to make a timely and ample Proviſion for the ſeveral Branches of the Public Service, the Eſtimates for which I have directed to be laid before you. While I regret the Neceſſity of large additional Burthens on My Subjects, it is a juſt Conſolation and Satisfaction to Me to obſerve the State of Our Credit, Commerce, and Reſources, which is the natural Reſult of the continued Exertions of Induſtry under the Protection of a free and well-regulated Government.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

A juſt Senſe of the Bleſſings now ſo long enjoyed by this Country will, I am perſuaded, encourage you to make every Effort, which can enable you to tranſmit thoſe Bleſſings unimpaired to your Poſterity.

I entertain a confident Hope that, under the Protection of Providence, and with Conſtancy and Perſeverance on Our Part, the Principles of ſocial Order, Morality, and Religion, will ultimately be ſucceſsful; and that My faithful People will find their preſent Exertions and Sacrifices rewarded by the ſecure and permanent Enjoyment of Tranquillity at Home, and by the Deliverance of Europe from the greateſt Danger with which it has been threatened ſince the Eſtabliſhment of civilized Society.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th of December, 1794,
